

Domaine Rieflé-Landmann 2016 Pinot Noir (Alsace)

89
POINTS

Why red cherry notes are expansive on the nose. These tones are equally expressive on the palate where they have a counterpoint of freshness. The body is textured with fine tannins, keeping the feel light and fluid. A lovely, easy and fruit-driven wine.

PRICE	$26, Buy Now
VARIETY	Pinot Noir
APPELLATION	Alsace, Alsace, France
WINERY	Domaine Rieflé-Landmann

Print a Shelf Talker Label

ALCOHOL	12.5%
BOTTLE SIZE	750 ml
CATEGORY	Red
IMPORTER	Maritime Wine Trading Collective
DATE PUBLISHED	4/1/2018
USER AVG RATING	Not rated yet [Add Your Review]

ANNE KREBIEHL MW

@AnneInVino

Contributing Editor

Reviews wines from Austria, Alsace and England

German-born but London-based, Anne Kriebiehl MW is a freelance wine writer contributing to international wine publications. She also lectures, co-translates and has helped to make wine in New Zealand, Germany and Italy. Her focus is on acidity in wine and is thus perfectly suited to her Austria/Alsace/England focus. Her particular weaknesses are Pinot Noir, Riesling and traditional-method sparkling wines.