

Domaine Rieflé-Landmann 2016 L'aplomb Ad Quadratum White (Alsace)

89
POINTS

Very gentle hints of ripe orchard fruit lay on the nose while the palate has the richness of juicy, ripe pear. Easy and harmonious, fresh and lively. Drink soon.

Reviews wines from Austria, Alsace and England

German-born but London-based, Anne Kriebiehl MW is a freelance wine writer contributing to international wine publications. She also lectures, consults and translates and has helped to make wine in New Zealand, Germany and Italy. She adores acidity in wine and is thus perfectly suited to her Austria/Alsace/England beat. Her particular weaknesses are Pinot Noir, Riesling and traditional-method sparkling wines.
